BTLJ ONLINE

The full text and abstracts of many previously published Berkeley Technology Law Journal articles can be found at http://www.btlj.org. Our site also contains a cumulative index, general information about the Journal, and the Bolt, a collection of short comments and updates about new developments in law and technology written by members of BTLJ.
INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The Editorial Board of the Berkeley Technology Law Journal invites the submission of unsolicited manuscripts. Submissions may include previously unpublished articles, essays, book reviews, case notes, or comments concerning any aspect of the relationship between technology and the law. If any portion of a manuscript has been previously published, the author should so indicate.

Format. Submissions are accepted in electronic format through the ExpressO online submission system. Authors should include a curriculum vitae and resume when submitting articles, including his or her full name, credentials, degrees earned, academic or professional affiliations, and citations to all previously published legal articles. The ExpressO submission website can be found at http://law.bepress.com/expreso.

Citations. All citations should conform to THE BLUEBOOK: A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATION (Columbia Law Review Ass’n et al. eds., 19th ed. 2010).

Copyrighted Material. If a manuscript contains any copyrighted table, chart, graph, illustration, photograph, or more than eight lines of text, the author must obtain written permission from the copyright holder for use of the material.
MESSAGE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Welcome to the first issue of Volume 27 of the Berkeley Technology Law Journal. With this volume, the Journal continues distribution of the regular Spring, Fall, and Symposium issues but is ceasing subscriber distribution of the Annual Review of Law and Technology. The Spring issue will now begin each volume. The Annual Review, which publishes student-written work surveying recent developments in law and technology, will follow in online format only. Subscribers may always download the current and past Annual Reviews at http://www.btlj.org and find them on HeinOnline, LexisNexis, and Westlaw. The Journal will then distribute in print the Fall issue and finish the volume with the Symposium issue, which contains pieces contributed by participants at the annual law and technology Symposium organized jointly by the Berkeley Center for Law and Technology and the Journal and held at the University of California, Berkeley School of Law every spring. With these changes, we look forward to continuing to provide you with timely publication of cutting-edge and influential scholarship in law and technology.
