BTLJ ONLINE

The full text and abstracts of many previously published Berkeley Technology Law Journal articles can be found at http://www.btlj.org. Our site also contains a cumulative index, general information about the Journal, the Bolt, a collection of short comments and updates about new developments in law and technology written by BTLJ members, and BTLJ Commentaries, an exclusively online publication for pieces that are especially time-sensitive and shorter than typical law review articles.
INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The Editorial Board of the Berkeley Technology Law Journal invites the submission of unsolicited manuscripts. Submissions may include previously unpublished articles, essays, book reviews, case notes, or comments concerning any aspect of the relationship between technology and the law. If any portion of a manuscript has been previously published, the author should so indicate.

Format. Submissions are accepted in electronic format through the ExpressO online submission system. Authors should include a curriculum vitae and resume when submitting articles, including his or her full name, credentials, degrees earned, academic or professional affiliations, and citations to all previously published legal articles. The ExpressO submission website can be found at http://law.bepress.com/expreso.

Citations. All citations should conform to THE BLUEBOOK: A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATION (Columbia Law Review Ass’n et al. eds., 19th ed. 2010).

Copyrighted Material. If a manuscript contains any copyrighted table, chart, graph, illustration, photograph, or more than eight lines of text, the author must obtain written permission from the copyright holder for use of the material.
