* There is no complete current bibliography of Professor Ehrenzweig's works, and the Editors of the California Law Review believe it appropriate to include one in this issue dedicated to him. We have attempted to make the bibliography as complete as possible, but it does not include a number of Professor Ehrenzweig's early works which were published in foreign periodicals and which have not been indexed.

¹ The category "Books" includes pamphlets and mimeographed materials prepared for teaching use. They are arranged in chronological order, by date of publication.

² Works marked "forthcoming" have been completed by Professor Ehrenzweig and are scheduled for publication in the near future.

³ The category "Articles" includes essays in collections, articles in encyclopedias, and various miscellaneous works. They are arranged chronologically, in order of publication.

⁴ Articles marked N.Y. LEG. DOC. constitute a series of studies prepared for the New York Law Revision Commission.
